

SpencerFane®

Ayesha Mehdi Provides Health Care Industry Update at Nevada MGMA Conference

Spencer Fane attorney Ayesha Mehdi presented at the 2023 Nevada Medical Group Management Association (NVMGMA) Conference on March 9 in Reno, Nevada.

Her presentation, Top Healthcare Policy Developments in 2023, was part of the annual event's three-day program, which centered on the theme "Creating Connections, Building Together." Attendees were treated to sessions geared toward helping professionals design and maintain efficient and effective operations that support the delivery of patient-centered care. Hosted at the Atlantis Casino Resort and Spa, the conference also included networking opportunities, sponsor exhibits, and raffle prizes.

At Spencer Fane, Ayesha collaborates closely with healthcare providers and professionals, as well as closely held businesses, to provide legal guidance on various corporate, regulatory, and licensure matters. She serves as outside counsel to her clients, helping them achieve their objectives in areas such as physician employment, recruitment, mergers & acquisitions, and joint ventures. Additionally, Ayesha offers solutions for handling professional board complaints, reimbursement issues, and corporate compliance to ensure her clients' success.

View photos from the event here.