Christine Chasse Gives Legal Career Insights to Texas A&M Law Students

Spencer Fane attorney Christine Chasse spoke on the October 9 Big Law Panel at Texas A&M University.

Hosted by the university's Business Law Society, the panel comprised five attorneys from various Dallas-Fort Worth law firms who engaged in an open dialogue moderated by Professor Neal Newman. Christine answered attending law students' most pressing questions about law school and pursuing a legal career, providing insight into her own journey.

At the firm, Christine collaborates with small and large institutions in industries such as health care, finance, and education. She utilizes her extensive frontline healthcare experience to assess and successfully resolve professional liability claims for hospital systems and providers. Christine also guides her clients with regulatory and compliance enforcement actions and advises on technological issues, including cybersecurity, data privacy, artificial intelligence, and cyber incident response matters.
