

Spencer Fane Expands Litigation Bench in Las Vegas

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Tiffany Solari joined the firm's Las Vegas office as an associate in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group.

Tiffany represents clients in a wide range of civil and criminal litigation matters, implementing calculated strategies which consistently yield desirable outcomes for her clients.

Prior to entering private practice, Tiffany served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Eric Johnson of the Eighth Judicial District Court, gaining valuable skills in legal research, writing, and application in various courtroom contexts. She also completed externships with the Honorable Mary Kay Holthus of the Eighth Judicial District Court and the Gun Crimes Unit of the Clark County District Attorney's Office and served as a law clerk for the Immigration Project at the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada.

"We are excited to welcome Tiffany to our robust litigation team where her legal acumen and dispute resolution skills will continue to flourish," said John Mowbray, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Las Vegas. "Her diverse experience and commitment to creative and strategic advocacy aligns with the core attributes of our team and broader practice."

Tiffany completed her undergraduate studies in international relations and global politics magna cum laude at The American University of Rome, gaining a comprehensive worldview complemented by her native Italian and working Spanish language skills. She earned her Juris Doctor at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas William S. Boyd School of Law.