

SpencerFane®

Texas Health Law Conference

Spencer Fane attorneys Dale Burrus, Cheryl Burtzel, Bill Hopkins, and Sean McKenna recently presented at the 2021 Texas Health Law Conference. Hosted by the Health Law Section of the State Bar of Texas, this event provided a platform for health care professionals to gain insight into industry trends.

Dale, Cheryl, Bill, and Sean presented during a “Hot Topic” session, covering current digital health events, the 5th Circuit interpretation of the Public Readiness and Emergency Preparedness Act (PREP) regarding COVID-19 liability cases in nursing homes, and recent developments in provider and business liability.

This panel addressed the following topics:

- Changes in health care law caused by the pandemic
- Risk management and professional liability for legal professionals
- Industry compliance and enforcement matters
- Prep Act implications for nursing homes

To learn more about this event, please click here.